DE RANKE GULDENBERG, 330ML, BELGIAN..... 10
8.5%, hoppy and malty; it bears no resemblance whatsoever to any Tripel you may have sampled, except in color perhaps.

TRAPPIST ALES

The criteria for being labeled as Trappist are the following:

- The beer must be brewed within the walls of a Trappist monastery, either by the monks themselves or under their supervision.
- The brewery must be of secondary importance within the monastery and it should witness to the business practices proper to a monastic way of life.
- The brewery is not intended to be a profit-making venture. The income covers the living expenses of the monks and the maintenance of the buildings and grounds. Whatever remains is donated to charity for social work and to help persons in need.
- Trappist breweries are constantly monitored to assure the irreproachable quality of their beers.
- Trappist association has a legal standing, & its logo gives the consumer information & guarantees about the product.

PORTER & STOUT

Much like other styles of beer, this one ranges quite a bit from London Porters to Russian Imperial Stouts. No clear distinction is made between stout and porter, although stouts tend to be slightly more robust. These beers tend to be rich in mouth feel and can be sweet, dry, bitter, or malty, but one thing is for sure; all are full flavored and dark in color due to their use of dark roasted grain.

TO OL PINEAPPLE EXPRESS, 375ML, DUTCH.....24
